WE MEET UPON THE SQUARE.

We meet upon the Level, and part upon the Square. What precious words of meaning these words Masonic are! Contemplate them: they are worthy of a thought. In the very soul of Masonry these precious words are wrought.

We meet upon the Level, though from every station come. The rich man from his mansion and the poor man from his home. For the one must leave his wealth and state outside the Mason's door. And the other finds his true respect upon the checkerboard floor.

We part upon the Square, for the world must have its due: We mingle with the multitude—a cold unfriendly crew. But the influence of our gathering in memory is green. And we look upon the Level to renew the happy scene.

There's a world where all are equal—we are hurrying towards it fast! We shall meet upon the Level there, when the gates of death are cast. We shall stand upon the Orient, and our Master will be there. To try the blocks we offer by his own unerring Square.

We shall meet upon the Level there, but never shall we meet again. There's a mansion—'tis all ready for each true-hearted, faithful heart! There's a mansion and a welcome, and a multitude of hands to shake. Who have met upon the Level and been tried upon the Square.

Let us meet upon the Level then, while laboring patient here! Let us meet and let us labor, though the labor be severe! Already in the Western sky, the signs bid us prepare. To gather up our Working Tools and part upon the Square.

Hands round, ye faithful Masons, from the bright fraternal chain. We part upon the Square below to meet in Heaven again. Oh! what words of precious meaning these words Masonic are— We meet upon the Level and we part upon the Square.

OUR BABY.

BY MRS. GAGE.

Did you ever see our baby? Little Pot. With his eyes so sparkling bright And his skin so lily white, He is just the sweetest baby in the lot.

Ah! he is our only darling, And to me All his little ways are witty; And when he sings his little ditty, Every word is just as pretty As can be. Not another in the city Sweet as he.

You don't think so—never saw him. Well you could. See him with his playthings rattling. Hear his little tongue a patter. Little dear! He is just the sweetest baby in the lot. Love him just as well as I do, If you could!

Every grandma's only darling, I suppose. Is sweet and bright a blossom, Is a treasure to her bosom. Is as charming and endearing, As any close.

Heaven's Father, spare him to us, Till life's close.

STATE NEWS.

MEETING OF THE MEMBERS OF THE CRAYVEN COUNTY BAR.—At a meeting of the members of the Bar in the City of New York, the birthplace of the late Richard Spaight Donnell, and where he has just closed his life, on motion of Mr. Hubbard, Judge Manly was called to the chair. Judge Manly, upon taking the chair, eulogized the many virtues of the deceased, and commended upon motion of Mr. Clark, Henry R. Bryan, Esq., was appointed Secretary.

Upon motion of Mr. Hubbard, a committee of three was appointed by the chair, which consisted of Messrs. Hubbard, Clark and Thomas, to report suitable resolutions for the occasion. The committee retired, and after a few moments returned and reported the following:

1st. The deceased was early called to public service in the Congress of the United States, in the local assemblies of North Carolina, and in the active duties of the profession of law, and continued in those latter duties to the time when his failing health rendered the service impracticable. In all he was greatly distinguished by his learning, ability, zeal, fidelity and patriotism, giving unqualified satisfaction to those whom he represented, and affording them just cause of pride in his distinction.

2nd. In private and social life he was singularly unselfish, generous and free, drawing around him and attaching friends in indissoluble bond; ever ready among companions to assume responsibilities and burdens, and equally ready to relieve others of positions of ease, honor or advantage.

3rd. He was the idol of his friends. The public, the social circle in which he moved, and the bar especially of the State sustain by his death a great loss. His virtues and relations of life were of rare excellence. His professional character was without blemish or reproach, and it is eminently proper that these should be held in honored remembrance by us and proposed to also examples for imitation.

4th. While the bar feel deeply and deplore the loss to them of a friend and professional brother, they are not unmindful of the sorrow which must afflict the members of the family to whom he was so dear. In this regard they desire to express their sincere sympathy and to offer to the family their unaffected condolence.

5th. The undersigned and Secretary of this meeting are requested to transmit copies of the resolutions to the sisters of the deceased, and to the same to be published in the gazettes of the city.

6th. That a copy of these resolutions be handed to the friends and relatives of the deceased, and that they be spread upon the Records of the court.

Mr. Hubbard, upon offering the resolutions, paid a handsome tribute to the memory of his departed friend, and was followed by Messrs. Justice and Clark, in a few eloquent and appropriate remarks. Whereupon the resolutions were unanimously adopted, and the meeting adjourned.

THE LEGISLATURE.—Besides the reasons which influenced us to suggest, a few weeks ago, the propriety of calling on General Sickles to dissolve the General Assembly, there were others more potent with us which we did not then, and do not now, deem it proper to mention. The change in our opinion, since, originates in the different phases which those private reasons have assumed, and in what appears to be a more general anxiety for a Penitentiary, and the necessity for legislative action in other respects. As matters now stand, the Legislature will certainly meet again on the third Monday in August, and the members thereof will be the best Judges of what is necessary to be done. Raleigh Sentinel.

THE WEALTH OF NORTH CAROLINA.—For many years the vast mineral resources of North Carolina have been known, but little attention has been given to them. Intelligent and influential capitalists of the North are becoming fully awakened to the value and importance

THE MONEY ORDER SYSTEM.

The French and English postal authorities have under consideration the establishment of an international system of money orders, and the respective countries. The idea appears to be a good one, and might probably be extended to the United States, to meet the wants of emigrants who are constantly sending money to the old country. So long as the government insists on carrying the mails, it may as well do it thoroughly.

THE SOUTHERN RELIEF SUPPER AT ROYAL OAK.

The supper gotten up at Royal Oak on Friday evening for the relief of the Southern people, was eminently successful, notwithstanding the inclemency of the evening. We understand that the contributions of people were large, and the profits amounted to over two hundred dollars. The fund will be transmitted to Mrs. B. C. Howard, of Baltimore, President of the Ladies' Southern Relief Association, for disbursement.

Baltimore (Md.) Sun.

THE CROPS.

From all parts of the country we are in receipt of the most favorable news concerning the crops, especially wheat. The crops promise as great a yield as in any year for the past twenty years, and we hope that Providence will continue his liberality and allow our suffering people to harvest a plentiful supply of food this year. The cat crop, also, looks excellent, and upon the whole, our people have reason to be greatly rejoiced at the favorable prospect before them, as far as the staff of life is concerned.
